

EMPTORIS PRESENTS AT STAFFING INDUSTRY ASSOCIATES' CONTINGENT WORKFORCE STRATEGIES SUMMIT

Burlington, MA, – (October 30, 2009) – Emptoris, Inc., a leading provider of Enterprise Supply and Contract Management solutions, today announced that several key executives from Emptoris will be presenting at the Staffing Industry Associates' Contingent Workforce Strategies (CWS) Summit.

The Contingent Workforce Strategies (CWS) Summit is "the only event geared for corporate buyers and contingent workforce managers," providing information and strategies needed to better manage the critical components of an organization's workforce. The event attracts senior professionals in human resources, procurement, IT and category management at Global 2000 companies. The Contingent Workforce Strategies (CWS) Summit takes place from November 3rd to 4th at the Buena Vista Palace Hotel in Orlando, Florida.

Seth Wolins, General Manager for Services Procurement at Emptoris, Inc., will lead a discussion on services procurement solutions and systems titled "Getting the Most out of your Vendor Management Systems," which will focus on best practices in services procurement and practical solutions to help companies manage contingent labor and services, as well as related technologies. Lalitha Balasubramhanya, Senior Product Manager Emptoris Services Procurement will participate in a rapid-fire session titled "Speed Suppliers" where she'll present ideas on reviewing and implementing usage of software to manage a contingent workforce program, as well as how to scale services procurement as demand grows in new categories.

The Emptoris Services Procurement Solution is the market's most widely-used contingent and professional services procurement solution. More than 200,000 employees at leading global companies use the solution to find, evaluate, purchase, manage and pay for all types of services including business process outsourcing, facilities management, temporary labor and IT consulting. The solution is available in 13 languages and utilizes all major currencies.

Emptoris is the only provider with a suite of solutions to address the "High Value but Hard to Manage" categories such as SOW-based services, contingent labor, management consulting, IT outsourcing and other 3rd-party services. Leveraging advanced spend analysis, sourcing, contracting, services procurement and supplier performance management, Emptoris helps companies drive more value in services procurement, sourcing complex categories, getting clear spend visibility, and actively managing contract compliance.

For further information on Emptoris or the Emptoris Customer Award Winners, visit www.emptoris.com.

###